-From the Director's Desk -

This past week, we celebrated our nation's 241st birthday. As you know, Independence Day is celebrated on July 4th...the date given to The Declaration of Independence. However, Congress actually voted to declare independence on July 2nd. And so, John Adams wrote to his wife these less known words:

The second day of July, 1776, will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever more.

So...how did you celebrate Independence Day? Did you go to a parade (or was part of the parade)? Did you play softball with friends and family? What about bells? Or even bonfires? Or did you take in some good illuminations (fireworks ;-). Did you go on a picnic or have a barbecue? How about an expression of independence by taking your Gold Wing out for a nice summer day ride? Whatever you did to celebrate, we hope that you had a great time with your friends and family.

Finally, we leave you with a more recognized phrase often quoted from the Declaration of Independence penned by John Hancock:

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

Our freedom and independence is not free or independent of all of those that have honored this country with their service. We are privileged to pledge our allegiance to our flag at the start of every GWRRA meeting. Thank you!

Ride safe, and we will see you out there.

THOUGHTS FROM THE BACK SEAT

This past week, I spent much time, many hours in fact, digging holes. You guessed it, I was planting flowers and shrubs. I LOVE working in the yard! The smell of fresh flowers and freshly mown grass. The feel of the warm sun on my back and the dark rich soil in my hands as I work, makes me so happy, so peaceful.

As I was digging the very deep holes required for the new shrubs, I was reminded of our first introduction into our chapter I family. Steve and I, in hopes of finding a group of folks who shared our same love for riding motorcycles, sought out and introduced ourselves to you. We expected to find a group of, NICE, people that we could ride with and talk shop with on occasions.

What we have found instead, much to our delight and surprise, are not only kindred spirits in our love of motorcycles and riding them but wonderful friends too. I realized as I was digging in the dirt, how deeply rooted YOU, our chapter I family, have planted yourselves in our hearts. YOU have become so important, so valued, and so loved by both Steve and I. We are enriched by all the life giving friendships we have made and are so thankful that YOU, always have our backs! Our friendships reach far past, just motorcycles, that is truly a wonderful gift!

As I look at our yard, with all the additional plants and flowers, it makes me smile. There is an added warmth and fullness to the landscape, so nice...so relaxing. Just like spending time with you, OUR FRIENDS, it has become a lovely place to be.

~~LANE SPLITTING~~

Lane splitting...Who in their right mind would do such a thing-legal or not. Only in California can you lane split. What is lane splitting? Simply said: It when you as a motorcyclist drives between lanes of rows of stopped or moving traffic on your motorcycle. A member from California Chapter wrote an article on lane splitting and it got published in Wing World. I don't condone lane splitting but it is something that is recognized in California. In the US, lane sharing is a special privilege for California riders only and visitors if you are on a motorcycle. I have ridden in California and have been stuck in traffic. I saw all sort of motorcycles pass Laura and I, but I didn't see and full dressers pass us. A lot of the motorcycles that pass us were going pretty fast (about 30-35 mph) for stop and go traffic. I have seen some cars pull out into the lane to stop the motorcycle from going down the lane. So he slowed down, founded and opening between vehicles and took the other lane. While Laura & I sat in traffic melting away, I was tempted to split the lane. As I looked down the lane, it looked as though my motorcycle would not fit in some places and to go between vehicles to change lanes was not an option. Finally the traffic started to move and we were able to be on our way. Here are some key points when trying to split lanes and be safe.

- Lane splitting by motorcycles is not illegal in California when done in a safe and prudent manner.
- Motorists should not take it upon themselves to discourage motorcyclists from lane splitting.
- Intentionally blocking or impeding a motorcyclist in a way that could cause harm to the rider is illegal (CVC 22400).
- Opening a vehicle door to impede a motorcycle is illegal (CVC 22517).
- Never drive while distracted.
- You can help keep motorcyclists and all road users safe by:
 1. Checking mirrors and blind spots, especially before changing lanes or turning
 2. Signaling your intentions before changing lanes or merging with traffic.
 3. Allowing more following distance, three or four seconds, when behind a motorcycle so the motorcyclist has enough time to maneuver or stop in an emergency.

Motorcycle VS Car ~~LANE SPLITTING~~

If you saw the video of motorcycle vs. car in Santa Clarita, CA on Hwy 14. Exciting video with a very bad conclusion on the highway. I would like to address what the news anchor and reporters didn't cover initially. As with most states, California has H.O.V lanes. (High Occupancy Vehicle). The news cast doesn't show the beginning of the video when the car moves from the regular lane over into the HOV lane. If you look closely at the video, you'll notice that the HOV lane has 2 double yellow lines as well as a single solid white lines. You cannot cross these lines to get in or out of the HOV lane. You must enter and exit at the broken/dash lines of the HOV lane. The car made an illegal move to get into that lane and this is what sparked the violence, in my opinion. Also, you don't see it, there is only one person in the car. The motorcyclist retaliated by kicking the door of the car in which the car driver tried to hit or run over the motorcyclist. (Attempted Manslaughter, I think...not a lawyer). I don't condone the motorcyclist action of kicking the door. By kicking the car door, the driver got upset and tried to hit the motorcyclist, lost control and hit the median wall, turn and cross two lanes of traffic and hit a Cadillac Escalade, EXT. Meanwhile, the motorcyclist applies both brakes, slows, and navigate through the debris and leave the scene. WOW. Just keep in mind that the entire story has flaws, but most of it is pointed at the motorcyclist by the news media. (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LsviqVt3Qkk>)

Besides California, the rest of the country, lane splitting is illegal. Ensure your Goldwing will fit down the lane. Not every lane will support the width of a Goldwing. If you choose to do so, be safe and follow the rules and regulations set forth by the state of California. Be careful, stay safe and have fun.

ROAD CAPTAIN COURSE

Last month June, the Road Captain Course went very well. The first part of the course started with a 45 minute classroom right after the meeting. Class members were Don Benuska, Barney & Miyo Hunter, and Don & Jackie Lacasse. Assistant Instructors were Don Cruzan and Jim & Olga Wyman as well as myself.

Good information and ideas were passed along to the students on how to conduct a safe ride. Then we all went to the road to put our new knowledge to the test. Everybody took turns being the Lead Bike and the Drag Bike. At the end of the ride, all students got critiqued on what they could do better and improve while riding. This is not a course that is learned overnight. This is one of the courses that gets better with time and experience.

I would like to thank Don Cruzan and Jim & Olga Wyman for their assistance. Congratulations to the New Road Captains.
